The map shows the town of Breda, with the city center highlighted in red and the surrounding area in blue. The map includes a scale bar (0 to 200 m) and a north arrow. The city center is densely packed with buildings and streets, while the surrounding area is more open with fewer buildings and more green space. The map also shows the city's location relative to the surrounding region, with the city center in the center and the surrounding area extending to the edges of the map.
